

16 May 1990

$1m pirate computer raid

CUSTOMS officers yesterday seized pirate computer disks and manuals worth more than $1 million and arrested 20 people in a swoop on a Shamshuipo shopping arcade.

Senior Inspector Tam Yiu-keung, of the Customs Investigation Bureau (Copyright Division), said 15 computer hardware shops on the ground floor of the Golden Shopping Centre in Fuk Wah Street and two photocopying shops at an adjacent arcade were raided.

He said the seizure included 7,600 infringement computer disks, 2,500 copies of computer manuals and reference books and four computers.