

Scmp 8 Nov 84

Accounts go public

For the first time ever, meetings of the Public Accounts Committee — the watchdog of Government accounts — will be opened to the public later this month.

The meetings will see controlling officers from various Government departments being grilled on how they have spent public funds.

The five open meetings of the Public Accounts Committee will be held later this month following tabling in the Legislative Council today of the report of the Director of Audit.