

An engineered protest

THE open recruitment of a new Government Works chief provoked about 30 Government engineers to petition the Legislative Council after a protest, above, yesterday. Discontent over the matter has also turned into a election issue for the engineering constituency. Two potential candidates - Cheng Honkwan and Samuel Wong Ping-wai have thrown their support behind the Government engineers in their opposition to the decision.