

Eastern Express

Apr. 14, 1994

Allowance rise for firefighters

Firefighters and correctional services staff will be allowed an increase in some of their allowances after a review on pay and benefits.

The review committee agreed to increase service allowances for fire services personnel fighting marine fires, and also to increase the overnight allowance for correctional services officers from $50 to $80.

The committee agreed to increase the service allowance for marine duties because of the greater hazards involved.