10 try for six Urbco seats

At least 10 people will run for six Urban Council seats in March.

The six seats will become vacant on the expiry of the present terms of Mrs Elsie Elliott, Dr Denny Huang, Mr Hilton Cheong-Leen, Dr P.C. Wong, Miss Cecilia Yeung and Mr Henry Luk.

All of them are expected to stand for re-election.

The Reform Club will field three candidates: Mr Francis Chaine, who is a solicitor and the secretary of the club, Mr Frank Knight, who is a retired police chief inspector and now a director of a security firm, and Miss Cecilia Yeung, the club's vice-chairman.

The Reform Club last night named its three candidates to the Urbco race during its annual general meeting attended by more than 1,000 members.

The Civic Association will also field three candidates: Mr Hilton Cheong-Leen; Mr Wong Chi-hung, a businessman, and Dr Shum Kee-son, who is keen on improving medical services to the public.

A number of independents are also expected to stand for election.

The number of provisionally registered voters now stands at 31,481, compared with 31,406 last year.
